

April 8, 1993

LB 260, 570

feedlot...but there are other provisions that you could be talking about that would be a Class I misdemeanor. Now if you're talking about IIB, violating any livestock waste control law, rule, regulation, permit, license or permit, that would be a Class I misdemeanor.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Okay, thank you. We may have to take a look at this before Select because I think this bill may go farther than what we really want to go with it at this time. So, thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Schellpeper. Any other discussion on LB 570? Seeing none, Senator Beutler, would you like to close?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, I only want to say in closing that anybody that has a concern about the bill please let me or my staff know so that we can get everybody together that does have a concern and get...be sure we're all understanding the same things and that we get everybody's concerns dealt with. Thank you.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. We'll now vote on the advancement of LB 570. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the advancement of 570.

SPEAKER BAACK: LB 570 advances. We'll go to LB 260.

CLERK: LB 260 by Senator Crosby. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 11, referred to the Health Committee, advanced to General File. I have no amendments to the bill.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. LB 260 shifts the primary responsibility for payment of the cost of medical services provided to individuals who have been arrested, detained, taken into custody, incarcerated from the appropriate governmental agencies to the recipient's own personal insurer. If this person does not have health insurance or does not qualify for coverage, then that person will be held personally responsible for his or her medical services. If the recipient does not have adequate personal resources, then other resources